Statewide Planning Program

Department of Administration

One Capitol Hill

Providence, Rhode Island 02908-5872

The Statewide Planning Program, Rhode Island Department of Administration, is established by Chapter 42-11 of the General Laws as the central planning agency for state government. The work of the program is guided by the State Planning Council, comprised of state, local, and public representatives and federal and other advisors.

The objective of the Program are: (1) to prepare strategic and systems plans for the state; (2) to coordinate activities of the public and private sectors within this framework of policies and programs; (3) to assist local governments in management, finance, and planning; and (4) to advise the Governor and others concerned on physical, social, and economic topics.

Activities of the Program are supported by state appropriations and federal grants. The contents of this report have been assembled from the contributions of many government and non-government sources. The responsibility for accuracy belongs to the contributing source, which is noted on each table. This publication is based upon publicly supported research and may not be copyrighted.
